

Message 1: Jesus REVEALED

Discussion Questions:

1. Read Revelation 1:12-18. What stands out to you about John's vision of Jesus? How does this description compare to how Jesus is often pictured or thought of today?
2. Why do you think John uses such powerful imagery to describe Jesus? How does this vision of Christ encourage believers facing trials?
3. Read Revelation 5:6-14. Why is Jesus described as both a "Lion" and a "Lamb"? What does this paradox teach us about how Jesus rules?
4. In Revelation 5:9-10, the people sing a new song to Jesus. How does their song help us understand the significance of Jesus' sacrifice?
5. Read Revelation 19:11-16. Jesus is depicted as the rider on the white horse. What does it mean that His weapon is a sword from His mouth rather than in His hand?
6. How do these images of Jesus challenge or expand your current understanding of who He is?
7. How does seeing Jesus as the Ancient of Days, the Slain Lamb, and the Victorious King help us endure through life's difficulties?
8. What are some ways we can reflect this vision of Jesus in our daily lives? How does knowing He is both sacrificial and victorious impact how we follow Him?
9. Why do you think Revelation emphasizes Jesus' glory and victory in such dramatic ways? How does this compare to other parts of Scripture?
10. How does worshiping Jesus as Revelation describes help reorient our perspective on the challenges we face today?
