

Message 2: Team Lamb — The Church Revealed in Revelation

Series: REVEALED

Big Idea: Revelation reveals an image of the Church as a community shaped by and loyal to the Lamb. Our identity, mission, and endurance are rooted in Him.

Introduction: Whose Team Are You On?

- Revelation presents two teams: Team Lamb or Team Dragon
- To be on Team Lamb is not just belief, but allegiance and formation

Point 1: Team Lamb Shines — We're Lampstands

Text: Revelation 1:9–20; 2–3

- The Church is called to reflect the light of Christ, like lampstands in the darkness
- Jesus walks among the lampstands—He is present with us
- Each church in Revelation 2–3 shows a different flame condition:
 - Ephesus: Lost love
 - Smyrna/Philadelphia: Suffering faithfully
 - Pergamum/Thyatira: Tolerating compromise
 - Sardis: Looks alive, but fading
 - Laodicea: Lukewarm and self-sufficient

Reflection:

What kind of lampstand are you?

Point 2: Team Lamb Worships — We Cast Our Crowns

Text: Revelation 4–5

- Worship in Revelation is surrender and allegiance
- Casting crowns = giving glory to the only One worthy
- We are called a kingdom of priests (Rev 5:9–10)
 - Worship is not escape—it's resistance, formation, and mission
 - Priests carry God's presence into the world

Reflection:

What song are you singing with your life?

Point 3: Team Lamb Endures — We Suffer and Witness

Texts: Revelation 7, 11, 14

- The Church, like the two witnesses in Rev 11, mirrors Jesus' path:
 1. Prophetic Witness – Speaking truth
 2. Suffering and Death – Costly allegiance
 3. Vindication and Resurrection – God honors the faithful

“They follow the Lamb wherever He goes.” —Revelation 14:4

Conclusion: Join Team Lamb

- Team Lamb:
 - Shines in the dark
 - Worships in truth
 - Endures in faith
- The Lamb doesn't just call us to heaven—He calls us into the ordinary moments of obedience today

 - What does worship look like beyond Sunday?
 - Where do I need endurance?
- Pray:

“Jesus, help me shine, worship, and endure as part of Team Lamb.”

Don't just wear the jersey—live the mission.
